

Positive Discipline in the Classroom

On-Line Certification Workshop for Teachers, Counselors, Administrators and School Staff

This interactive workshop is designed for all educators, teachers, counselors, school staff and administrators seeking a research based discipline approach (from Adlerian Psychology), that integrates social and emotional learning throughout the curriculum while positively impacting student behavior, whole school climate and academic outcomes. Attendees will earn Certification as Positive Discipline Educators and develop skills to:

1. Transform challenging behaviors into opportunities to build social-emotional skills;
2. Understand the belief behind student behavior and learn how to use encouragement to provide positive change;
3. Cultivate classroom communities of connection and respect;
4. Create and equitable classroom and community with clear guidelines and routines based on mutual respect and cooperation;
5. Facilitate effective class meetings that develop student voice, restore relationships, teach problem-solving and life skills;
6. Fill the “teaching toolbox” with authoritative methods that are both kind and firm for grades K-12 and
7. Learn Positive Discipline/Adlerian psychology for use in the classroom and school community.

Introducing your presenter: Mary Hogan Jones

Mary is a Certified Lead Trainer and past Co-Chair of the Positive Discipline Association. She has a Masters of Arts in Teaching, is a Level V STARS trainer, served on KTIP committees as the college representative in Bardstown and surrounding school districts. Her teaching career started as a teacher in the Central Kentucky Community Action Head Start, served as the Program's Education Director, owned and educated preschool and kindergarten children in Bardstown and Nelson County in her Kids' Stuff Kindergarten, Nursery, And All-Day Care Inc. Later she taught kindergarten and English at St. Thomas School and was an associate professor of Interdisciplinary Early Childhood and Education at St. Catharine College in Springfield, Kentucky. She and her husband Bill have four grown children and are the proud grandparents of four amazing grandchildren. In her retirement years she is encouraging children, parents, teachers and school administrators and staff to model and teach peace by sharing the use of Positive Discipline tools and philosophy; one home and one classroom at a time.
